

Shelley Saunders PhD Research Grant Evaluation Form

Name of Applicant:

Title of Project:

1. Are the purpose and significance of the proposed research project clearly articulated?

Points (1 to 5)

2. Does the proposed project stand to make an original contribution to biological/ physical anthropological research?

Points (1 to 5)

3. Does the student have a well-organized research plan and a reasonable and doable time line?

Points (1 to 5)

4. Has the proposed project received funding from other sources (not that this would count against them, but could be seen as an indicator of quality), or have other funding sources to which applications will be submitted been identified?

Points (1 to 5)

Total Score: /20

Comments:

Rank: